Kids Tents 2023

A space for the children of all ages to get involved with a wide range of interactive activities. These included dance, arts and crafts, and face painting.

Kids activities included:

- The Junkfish tent where kids could get creative making a festival mask, designing their own spoon puppet or just have fun playing at our building bricks and playdough stations
- The Kaleido Arts tent where kids took got involved with embroidery, bag decorating, drumming and writing inspired by the theme of togetherness
- The Sheffield City of Sanctuary tent where Dr Nantia Koulidou inspired children to celebrate our cultures through colour and connecting, by making jewellery together
- Face painting by WOW Face & Body Art

This project is co-funded by the European Union Asylum, Migration and Integration Fund. Making management of migration flows more efficient across the European Union.
