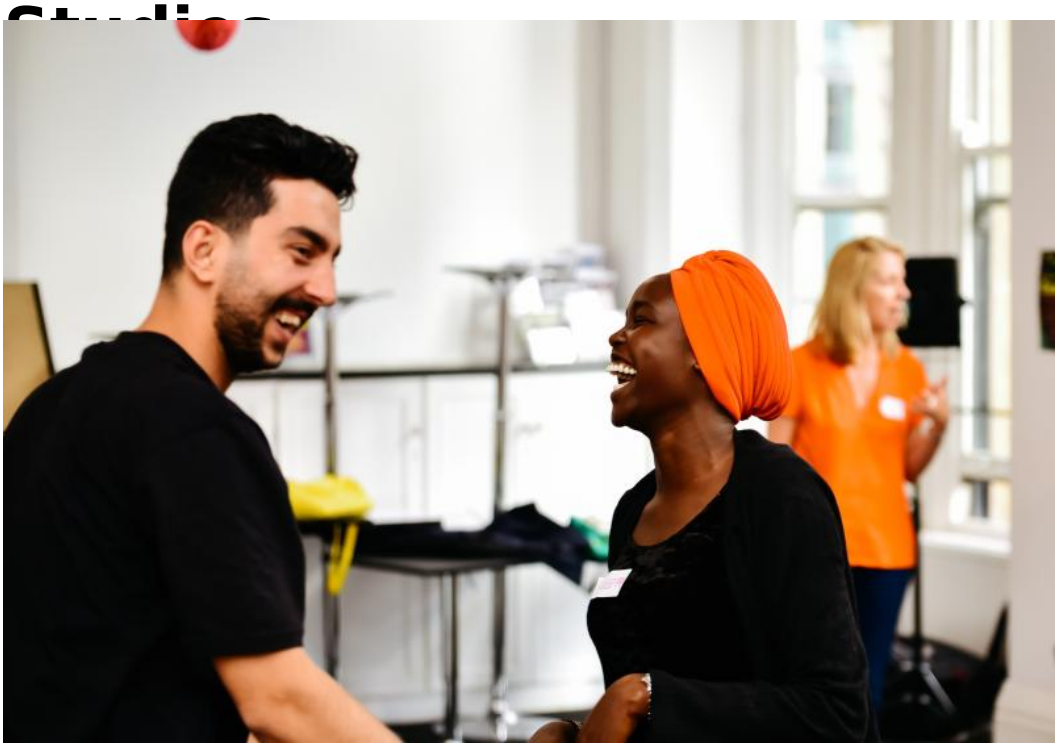
Regional Refugee Integration Forum Case Studies



As part of the Regional Refugee Integration Forum for Yorkshire & Humber we are keen to capture and share case studies highlighting examples of good practice in the region.

Developing a trauma-informed approach to building connections through shared activities and story-telling

Read about how Bradford Schools and Colleges of Sanctuary have brought together ESOL students and primary school children to share mutual learning and build connections.

Introduction to Volunteering Partnership with Kirklees Libraries, Kirklees College and Third Sector Leaders

Learn how Kirklees Library of Sanctuary have sought to strengthen their commitment to inclusivity.

Soap Box Collective

In this case study we learn about Stand Up and Be Counted Theatres long-term creative empowerment programme for young adults seeking sanctuary.

An Afternoon at Yorkshire Sculpture Park with Learn for Life Enterprise

Read about the visit of a group of refugees and asylum seekers from the Learn for Life Enterprise network to the Yorkshire Sculpture Park as part of their commitment to inclusivity, drives their community program.

Raising awareness of refugee integration in organisations and networks across health structures in Yorkshire and Humber

Health colleagues has spent the last three years building a regional structure to raise awareness of refugee integration in health organisations and networks.

Back to Yorkshire and Humber Regional Refugee Integration Forum main page.

Yorkshire & Humber Refugee Integration Forum

Part of Migration Yorkshire

Source URL: https://www.migrationyorkshire.org.uk/regional-refugee-integration-forum-case-studies