Refugee Integration Service

If you're a new refugee, you can get individual support from us for up to 6 months

We offer advice and support to new refugees on issues such as:

- accessing housing
- welfare benefits
- employment
- training advice

You'll be able to access the service by telephone and, in some cases, face to face. We can provide translation and interpretation services.

Help with family reunion

We're partnering with the Family Reunion Service (FRS), which is based with Sheffield Hallam University. FRS can provide advice and support to separated families who are seeking to reunite. If you're receiving support from the Refugee Integration Service, we can refer you to the FRS or you can approach FRS directly for advice.

Help with information technology

Solidaritech, a community interest company, is partnering with us to help refugees get access to devices and bandwidth so you can make use of digital services and the Internet.

How to contact us

If you have any difficulties in accessing your local service, please email us at admin@migrationyorkshire.org.uk

This service is part of Refugee Integration Yorkshire and Humber, managed by Migration Yorkshire.
