

BBO

Eligibility

- over 25 years old
- Live in Hull, East Riding, North Lincolnshire or North East Lincolnshire
- Unemployed or Economically Inactive
- Want to move towards the labour market

The programme

The BBO programme provides engaging activities for unemployed and economically inactive individuals in the Humber area, to enable them to develop their own skills and build their employability, whilst also building the resilience of their local community.

Individualised programmes can include personal and social development, occupational-specific training, work experience, and volunteering.

Extra support is available to address very specific barriers such as poor mental health, entrenched financial problems, and low functional skills.
